

Dashboard Challenge

Profile Benefits

goncept's vision is to develop outstanding software which supports digital transformation in the manufacturing industry. At goncept we see every software project as an innovation towards process optimization. We believe that real innovation only happens when combining the spices of different engineering disciplines.

This is why we spice up with experts in metallurgy, software architecture, software development, UI & UX and data science.

Read more: https://goncept.at/

 $\square$

Join our team to be infected by our passion to engineer innovation as a

Software Solution Architect (m/f/x)

The spices of your new challenge:

Ш

- Designing the software architecture for a revolutionary software solution for the manufacturing industry
- Being the mentor to inspire the software development team
- Developing ideas and a product in a green field environment

You are ready to come onboard because:

- You are a professional in software development, ideally with a relevant university degree
- You have been acting as a lead architect for > 5y
- You are passionate to design software according to the latest trends
- You like working independently while sharing success in the team is even greater
- Ideally, you have been touching on the processing and manufacturing industry

Being a goncept member brings the following benefits:

- Highly flexible working culture: working place and home office can be discussed
- Quick decision making processes it is the success that counts, not who had an idea
- Succeeding with highly gualified product owners that bring >10y domain know-how
- Comprehensive employee benefits package with company sport and leisure events
- Modern offices, latest infrastructure and hardware
- Individual education and training program
- Annual bonus

Interested? Send your application to jobs@goncept.at Austrian federal law requires us to specify minimum salaries: the minimum salary is 65,000 euros/year. Naturally, an overpayment according to your skills will be agreed upon.